

NNGA 2016 Presenters (as of June 18, 2016)

Charles Rhola	Center for Pecans and Specialty Agriculture at the Noble Foundation
Andrew Nixon	The Ontario Hazelnut Association
Jerry Van Sambeek	Improving Soil Health and Pollinator Habitat by Integrating Cover Crops into Nut Orchard
Greg Miller	A Cooperative Chestnut Breeding Program for Commercial Chestnut Production in Eastern USA
Bob Stehli	Establishing a Successful Chestnut Orchard
Debbie Milks and Charlie NovoGradac	Twenty Acres and Twenty Years of Chestnuts in Kansas: A case report on a small commercial organic nut plantation
Peter Haarmann	Irrigation of a Hazelnut Orchard
Tom Molnar	Ornamental Hazelnuts: Developing edible landscape plants as a bridge to backyard growing
Tom Wahl	Pick-Your-Own Chestnuts and Pawpaws
Linda Grimo and Ernie Grimo	Breeding Heartnuts, Midway in the Journey
Scott Josiah	Hybrid Hazelnut Research and Development in Nebraska: Current Status and Future Directions
Mark Harrell	Thousand Cankers Disease of Walnut and Sudden Oak Death
Dennis Fulbright	Registering Hypovirulence as a Biopesticide for Orchard Chestnut Trees
Ron Powell	Pawpaws: Potential and Challenges
Larry Martin	Heartland Nuts N' More
Dan Shepherd	My Pecan Orchard in Northern Missouri

Jeanne Romero-
Severson

The Incredible New Brunswick Butternuts

Keith Berns

How Cover Crops Can Improve Your Soil

Laney Campbell
Shayne Galford,
scientist, and hobbyist
and Curt Thornburg
USDA APHIS

Import and Export of nuts and plant material for the commercial grower, plant

Tim Ford

Progress with Almonds and Sweet Pitted Apricots for use in the semi-arid, temperate zones

Nick LaBonte

Investigating the genetic basis of chestnut blight resistance using whole-genome sequencing: report on research funded by an NNGA grant